Exhibition in Moscow Is a Success

Foreign News Commentator
By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

On the lower level, the U.S. exhibition in Moscow apparently is a success.

On the upper level it has served primarily thus far to point up at least two primary difficulties in United States and Soviet Russian attempts to reach any kind of an understanding.

On the lower level, we have the ordinary Russian housewife showing her contempt for Mrs. Richard Nixon when she visits the big Moscow department store, GUM. They greet her as an outsider with whom they would like to be friendly.

Experience Typical
Friendliness is a basic commodity of the Russian people.

And so it has been exhibited at the U.S. Exhibition. Russians pore over the Sears Roebuck catalogue. They argue the merits of white versus colored ties in the home. American automobiles fascinate them. They seize upon the opportunity to talk with bi-lingual American guides.

But the differences also are basic. One not usually taken into consideration is the Russian language itself.

A Rich Language
It is a rich language, many of whose words have no exact translation into a single English language synonym.

This correspondent has listened many times while a Russian translator searched in vain for the English counterpart to a word or phrase in a Russian speech.

The second misunderstanding, if so it can be called, arises from a total lack of trust on both sides. The United States recalls with justified bitterness the failure of past understandings with the Soviets where the Reds have used every legalistic loophole for their own advantage.

Explains Geneva Conference
It is this which is one of the current sources of disagreement between the United States and Britain. Britain, anxious for a summit conference, would accept Russian verbal promises that there will be no interference with Western rights in Berlin so long as the subject is under conversation.

her mother, Mrs. J. R. Cox.

Mrs. Lucille Elgin and daughter, Bonnie of Texarkana spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Theo Elgin.

Mrs. Josephine Carrington had as her weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Hardey Carrington and Jack Hardey of Austin, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Beaver and son, Hardey of Hot Springs. Hardey was christened at the Sunday morning service at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. J. R. Bemis and daughter, Marita Jane, have returned from Cincinnati, Ohio where they were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simpson.

New Floor for Moscow Exhibition

MOSCOW (AP) — An asphalt covering to settle the dust was laid at the U.S. National Exhibition today as the Soviet press began raising its own clouds of dust about the whole show.

The Soviet press comment was reflected in headlines like these: "Don't Miscalc!" "Is This American?" and "All That Glitters Is Not Gold."

This last was a reference to the big aluminum dome that is tinted gold and forms the centerpiece of the U.S. exposition in Sokolniki Park.

The big fair has been going for five days now, but not one newspaper received here from the 14 other Soviet provincial capitals has yet carried any reviews of the show or quoted the Moscow papers on it.

The asphalt paving was laid down under the big dust-fogged aluminum dome by a Soviet crew with the job three-fourths done. The big electronic brain will resume answering questions about America, said Tom Meehling, in charge of the machine.

The machine was closed down and covered up to prevent dust raised by thousands of scuffling feet from jamming its working parts.

Richards-Cochran Exchange Vows

On Saturday, July 18, at the First Baptist Church of Las Cruces, N. M., Miss Janet Richards, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Chambers and Mr. Chambers of Las Cruces, formerly of Hope, became the bride of Bryce Cochran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cochran, also of Las Cruces. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Devore.

The bride was lovely in a white lace sheath dress of street length. It had a light blue cummerbund, and emphasis was on the large flat bow in the back. The dress had a low, round neckline and short sleeves. With it she wore white gloves and a small, white hat. At her shoulder the bride pinned a corsage of white carnations with pearl leaves and dewdrops.

DOROTHY DIX

Doctor Needn't Treat an Unwilling Patient

Dear Dorothy Dix: I would appreciate a simple answer to a very disturbing problem. Is a doctor justified in withholding medical treatment from a child because the youngster fears a needle and screams at the sight of one? Where does a doctor's code of ethics begin and end in cases of this kind? I recently heard of such a case and am disgusted about it. If all doctors felt like this a child would be in danger of death simply because he screamed and carried on at the thought of getting a shot.—Worried Mom

Dear Mom: For an authoritative reply to your question, I suggest that you get in touch with your county medical society. I have spoken to several doctors about the problem and they agree that a doctor is not bound to force treatment on an unwilling patient. A terrified child could go into convulsion, which would leave the doctor open to attack. In other words, the medical can't win; he's blamed if he does or if he doesn't. The crux of this situation is the mother. She should teach her child not to fear shots, as she must equip him to handle other unpleasantities of life. Fear of this sort is laughable, whether you realize it or not. Conquer the bad teaching with good and you won't expect a doctor to take over your discipline and moral problems.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Las Cruces

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Las Cruces served as the couple's only attendants. Mrs. Miller was attired in light blue and had a pink carnation corsage. While she was matron of honor to the bride, her husband was the groom's best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Chambers wore a green sheath dress and had accessories of green and white. She had a yellow carnation corsage. Mrs. Cochran wore a brown sheath dress, accented with a white cummerbund. Her accessories and her carnation corsage were all white.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the near-by Organ Mountain Lodge. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran are at home in Las Cruces, where the bridegroom is employed by the Mountain States Telephone Company.

siders his pay just pin-ball money. When his pay is gone, he writes home for more. I realize he's only 20 but when will he get sensible? I know lots of girls don't mind living off their in-laws but I'm not one. Should I let things ride for a while or tell him to choose between the family's money and me?—Carrie

Dear Carrie: While he's in the Army there's nothing you can do; when he gets out have a talk about the future. Probably he'll want to continue his education, which I think you should let his family finance. After all, it would be a big item for two kids and it is such an important thing that you should accept any help offered. Certainly you wouldn't want to "live off" your in-laws; but accepting help from them is something else again. Make your boy friend understand this and tell him his salary (when he starts making one) must be the main support of his family. You must look at the situation realistically. Fold into consideration the future, the cost of an education, today's high living costs and the fact that you can't plunge the boy into sudden poverty.

Giants Continue Blowing Leads to Dodgers

By ED WILKS

It was the Dodgers and the Giants who were the main attraction in the National League lead in the Dodgers-Giants game last night in the National League. Craig, the right-hander, who helped lead the Dodgers to their only world championship as a mid-season rookie in 1955, now has a 6-2 record since being reclaimed from the minors last month. The Braves, retaining Mathews for the first time since he injured his hip a week ago, beat the Cubs in a home run duel between Hank Aaron and Ernie Banks. Both hammered a pair, Aaron drove in the Braves' first three runs against loser Dave Hillman (3-8) with his 25th and 26th. Banks, tying Mathews for the NL lead with 29, drove in the Cubs' first four runs against Lew Burdette (14-10), who needed Don McMahon's hitless, three-inning mop-up after Sammy Taylor's solo homer in the seventh. The pesky Phillies managed just three hits off southpaw Johnny Antonelli, but two were homers by Ed Bouchee and Gene Freese. Don Cardwell (5-6) went all the way and allowed the Giants just six hits, one Orlando Cepeda's 21st home run.

Antonelli (14-6) had won eight in a row from the Phils since 1957. He now has lost two in a row and is winless in his last three starts. The Reds moved within a game of the sixth-place Cardinals by breaking a 2-2 tie in the third against loser Larry Jackson (8-9) on Frank Robinson's double and Ed Bailey's single. They made it a rout with six runs in the eighth while lefty Joe Nuxhall (4-8), who had lost six straight, blanked St. Louis on four hits over the last eight frames.

Red Hot Kansas City Climbs Near Third Spot

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

How hot is hot? Well, the two pennant races are hot, what with a rain and a rookie giving Chicago's White Sox a one-game edge in the American League and Los Angeles taking a half-game lead in the National.

But the Kansas City A's Man, they're blazin', rolling up 10 straight for a winning streak that hasn't been topped in the AL since mid-1956. It's jumped them from last to within a half-game of third.

They did it with a 5-4 victory over Washington Wednesday night that plunked the Senators into the among the worst in the majors this season.

No team has had a better winning string than the A's in the AL since the New York Yankees won 11 straight in '56.

The White Sox padded their slim edge when rain and the Yankees held them to a 4-4, six-inning tie after rookie Al Schroll had pitched Boston out of the cellar with a six-hitter for a 4-1 victory over second-place Cleveland. It was Schroll's first complete game in the majors and ended Cal McLish's winning streak at eight.

Third-place Baltimore beat Detroit 5-1 in the only day game. Los Angeles moved into the NL lead for the first time since May 12 with a 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh as Roger Craig handed the Pirates their ninth straight loss with a six-hitter. Last-place Philadelphia managed just three hits, but tumbled San Francisco to second by beating the Giants 3-1. Milwaukee remained third, a game behind, with an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Cincinnati beat St. Louis 9-2.

The A's, still 8 1/2 games short of first place after picking up 3 1/2 games since their blast off two weeks ago, decked the Nats in the first three innings. Dick Williams, who drove in three runs, hit a two-run homer off loser Bill Fischer (8-6) in the first. He singled home another in a three-run third.

The White Sox broke a 2-2 tie with two runs in the fifth on Luis Aparicio's triple and an infield out by left fielder Al Smith on Heeler Lopez' shot to the wall to escape defeat in the sixth after Yogi Berra's two-run, two-out homer had tied it again.

Schroll, a right-hander who gained his first major league victory in the National League with Philadelphia last April, evened his AL record at 1-1 while walking none and striking out five. The Red Sox, who had lost six straight to McLish (13-4) since last season, won it on Sammy White's two-out, two-run single in the fourth.

Baltimore beat Paul Foytack (9-9) with three unearned runs in the first two innings while youngsters Jerry Walker (8-5) and Milt Pappas combined for a six-hitter against the Tigers.

Hope Defeats Nashville by a 4-2 Tally

The Hope Legionnaires, losers of only one game this season, downed Nashville 4 to 2 last night at Legion field.

Wayne Johnson went the route for Hope aided by Fred Mathenia's big home run in the third inning with one on to put Hope ahead 2-1. They had little trouble the rest of the way.

Saturday night the Legionnaires will take on one of the best teams in Arkansas, the Jacksonville Air Base which has a 22-3 record.

Repealing administration demands for an increase in the federal gasoline tax, the committee proposed that a current financial emergency be met in this fashion:

This plan, if approved by Congress, would slash scheduled highway building allocations to $600 million in the 1961 fiscal year, starting next July 1. Allocations for ensuing years would be cut sharply below the present schedule.

The federal government supplies 90 percent of funds for construction of the interstate system. The committee vote was 15-10. The Eisenhower administration has opposed issuance of special highway bonds, contending this would create inflationary pressures and interfere with sales of other government securities.

President Eisenhower proposed that difficulties in financing the present program be met by raising the federal gasoline tax from the present 3 cents a gallon to 4 1/2 cents.

The 1956 Highway Act which provided for construction of the 41,000-mile interstate system created a trust fund from the federal gasoline tax and other levies on highway users.

However, this fund faces a prospective 500-million-dollar deficit by next spring due in part to an anti-recession speedup in highway building voted last year by Congress.

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Anthony (Tony Provenzano, president of the Teamsters Joint Council of New Jersey and a close lieutenant of national Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, was indicted today on two charges of accepting bribes from truckers.

Provenzano, also president of Hoboken Teamsters Local 560, is accused of receiving $1,500 from Walter A. Dorn, president of the Dorn Transportation Co. of Secaucus, N. J., and Rensselaer, N. Y., and $2500 from Arthur Pitman, president of J. Pitman & Co. of Hoboken.

Identity of Heir May Not Be Known
MARIETTA Ohio (AP)—Identity of the person who fell heir to $10,000 by presentation of the torn half of a $1 bill may never be disclosed.

Provision for payment of the money was made in the will of Dr. Praden E. Nida of Marietta, who died July 5 at 62. The will merely authorized the administrator to pay $10,000, tax free, to the holder of the other half of a $1 bill number P187517H.

The will has been admitted to probate but it was necessary for the administrator to report only that the terms of the will had been carried out. It was not necessary for him to know the identity of the bill holder.

Ike Plans to Travel When He Retires
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower disclosed today that a lot of travel is included in his retirement planning.

A reporter noted at Eisenhower's news conference that the President has not many more days in the White House and asked what he intends to do after that.

The newsman said there have been stories the Eisenhower would rent an apartment in Washington and that the chief executive might be offered the presidency of Gettysburg, Pa., College near his farm home.

Eisenhower replied with a smile that such matters as the renting of apartments have to be left to the staff aide. He said the newsman ought to get his lady reporter friends to ask Mrs. Eisenhower about that.

Eisenhower added it was the first he had heard about rumors he might be offered the presidency of Gettysburg College.

He said the college is headed by a younger man for whom he has high respect and he wouldn't think any change was in order. As for his own plans in retirement, Eisenhower said he wants to travel.

Slowdown on Construction Is Voted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee voted today for a slowdown on construction of the interstate highway system. This would mean sharply reduced annual allocations of federal funds to the states.

Repealing administration demands for an increase in the federal gasoline tax, the committee proposed that a current financial emergency be met in this fashion:

This plan, if approved by Congress, would slash scheduled highway building allocations to $600 million in the 1961 fiscal year, starting next July 1. Allocations for ensuing years would be cut sharply below the present schedule.

Here's a Tip on the Sense of Security

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Looking for a sense of security? Band leader Ted Steele gives a tip.

"Get interested in something besides your job," he advises. "Develop a hobby — and make it pay."

This outside security even helps you in your career by giving you more peace of mind. It has worked for me. I have been 25 years in show business, and I have never been out of a job."

Steele, once a $65-a-month NEC page boy, now is in the six-figure income bracket. An all-around performer, he has written some 30 songs, made more than 100 recordings.

A vocalist, pianist and organist as well as a bandleader, he also doubles as an emcee and newscaster. Ted currently carries one of the heaviest schedules in the radio-TV field. He is on the air 25 hours a week.

But he has always believed in having "something outside" working for him. For years he ran a 300-acre dairy farm in Bucks County, Pa. He sold it when his hands became too hard to find.

Now he operates two pet shops on the East Side here.

Between entertainment chores Steele likes to visit his shops, which stock everything from 3-cent supplies to $500 white poodles. He finds it relaxing — and profitable — to spend an hour or so each day in this small world of singing mules — canaries crossed with wild goldfinches; kissing gouramis — fish from Honolulu, and black Japanese walking mice.

"The pet shops give me an added feeling of security, too," he says. "I know that, if I had to, I could make a living from them."

Ted numbers among his clients doctors, dentists, many society notables, and such entertainment figures as Anna Magnani, June Valli, Carol Haney and Lloyd Nolan.

Pets with wealthy owners today live in a special world of privilege. Some dogs arrive in chauffeur-driven cars for a beauty treatment that can cost up to $25.

White poodles who like to wear toenail polish now have a choice of more than a dozen colors. The canine set also can put on the dog with its own tuxedo collars, top hats, ankle bracelets, neckties and cashmere sweaters.

"Many of the dogs have better wardrobes than their mistresses," Steele says. Steele's accountant is still grumbling over his decision.

Navy Confident About Polaris
By JOHN H. AVERILL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy confidently told Congress today its submarine-launched Polaris missile will be ready for combat use by late 1960.

Challenging suggestions that there have been delays in developing the advanced type missile, Rear Adm. William F. Raborn said work on the Polaris is right on schedule.

Raborn, director of the Navy's Special Projects Office, was the opening witness at the second day of a House Space Committee inquiry into the recent series of test failures of Atlas and Polaris missiles.

Raborn insisted that despite what might appear to some observers to be test failures, the Navy has encountered only two outright failures in 33 test launches to date.

All the others, he said, achieved their objectives either completely or partially.

The Navy, he continued, plans to fire "the first prototype 1960 operational missile late this year."

Eisenhower added it was the first he had heard about rumors he might be offered the presidency of Gettysburg College.

He said the college is headed by a younger man for whom he has high respect and he wouldn't think any change was in order. As for his own plans in retirement, Eisenhower said he wants to travel.

Manslaughter Hearing Delayed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A scheduled preliminary hearing for Richard Frederick Henson, 32, charged with manslaughter in the shooting of his wife, was postponed to Sept. 1 in municipal court today.

It was the third postponement of the hearing since Mrs. Henson, 30, was shot at the family home April 11.

A court attach said the case was postponed pending an investigation by the Pulaski County Grand Jury.

Henson told police the shooting was accidental. He said he found his wife in the arms of his cousin, Dave E. Thompson, a former state representative. After ordering Thompson to leave, Henson said, he was holding the pistol in one hand and shaking his wife with the other when the weapon discharged. He said he thought the gun was unloaded.

Mrs. Henson, mother of four children, was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Henson is free on bond. He is an X-ray technician.

a smiling worker in overalls at a hydroelectric plant in Novosibirsk, in the heart of Siberia.

But Novosibirsk is a city closed to foreigners most of the time.

The Russians who come to see Nixon are quick to respond to humorous situations.

At Sverdlovsk airport the vice president chatted with people standing near the fence. Learning that one pretty 16-year-old dark haired girl could speak English, he suggested with a smile that she "practice on me." The girl blushed.

"I don't know Russian, but I say it," Nixon coaxed, trying out a Russian phrase. People around were smiling as a translator filled them in.

Nixon saw the girl was getting very embarrassed, and he moved off with a good-bye and a wave, as he turned his back the girl called "good-bye" in perfect English. Russians and Americans around burst into laughter.

Roast, Ham, Chicken Still Good Buys

WEEKLY FOOD REVIEW
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rib roast, chuck roast, smoked ham, chicken, turkey and shrimp will be featured by the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend.

The diversity of meat specialists indicates the relative balance of the market meat specialists say. This level one is expected to become unbalanced shortly, however, with a decline in ham and other pork prices.

Hogs have fallen at the wholesale level for seven consecutive weeks and butcher hogs were the lowest in more than three years in Chicago last week on increased production of pigs.

Pork chop prices already are marked down 4 to 8 cents a pound over a wide area. This was more than 30 cents a pound lower than this time a year ago.

Families who like outdoor cooking can benefit from outstanding bargains in corn and potatoes. For the home canner or freezer, there also are especially attractive bargains in corn, beans, and tomatoes.

All these of course, are included on the list of best buys among vegetables, along with cucumber, cauliflower, eggplant, cabbage, peppers, radishes and green onions.

Other good vegetable buys are pascal celery, yellow onions, yellow or green squash, topped carrots and borccoli.

Canners also can get outstanding bargains among summer apples, which are plentiful and also cheap.

Blueberries, watermelons, limes, bananas and pineapples also are on the best buy list, while good buys include Bartlett pears, seedless grapes, some California plu-

Crime to Flee to Escape Prosecution

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Judiciary Committee today to make it a crime for a person to cross a state line to escape prosecution or settling fire to any territory.

The committee, in a closed session, wrote today into the Eisenhower administration's civil rights bill a provision that would make it a crime to cross a state line after a federal crime over a state line after a church or school.

The provision would be substituted for a measure that would make it a crime to cross a state line after a federal crime over a state line after a church or school.

Backs Off Election

Ark. (AP) — The Int'l. Assn. of Machinists received permission from National Labor Relations Board to withdraw from a bargaining election at the Little Rock School Board.

Laster Angry Over Election, Blasts Foes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Angered by a crushing defeat in a primary election for traffic judge here, a one-time segregationist member of the Little Rock School Board blasted foes of integration for their failure to support him.

Robert W. (Bob) Laster, traffic judge since 1957, ran third in the three-way contest. Former Judge John L. Sullivan piled up 5,601 votes to 1,035 for John W. Bailey and 1,522 for Laster.

Of the segregationists, Laster said, "They can go to blazes." "They wanted a standard bearer to lead them and then they let him down so they can now go jump off the Broadway Bridge."

Laster—who said when he won the judge's office that he intended to be governor someday—was elected to the school board last December on a strong segregationist platform. He was one of three board members recalled this spring after he and two other strong segregationist board members voted to fire 44 teachers.

"I'm still a segregationist personally," Laster said, "But I'm not going to champion their cause any more."

"I think the segregationist all give lip service, but don't go vote. They talk a good fight, but that's all. They don't get out and vote."

Laster said, "I put my political career on the auction block and they let me down when I stood up for them, so now I don't intend to fight their fight any longer." He agreed yesterday's beating stopped his gubernatorial intentions.

Asked of his future plans, Laster joked, "Let's see, I can raise peaches, peaches or tomatoes. What's selling good nowadays?"

Serious he said he and his wife plan to run laundry and cleaning shop and he would continue his private law practice "as long as I've got a client. I think I've got about three or four left."

Laster's wife, Marian, appeared relieved to have her husband out of politics, at least for the time being.

"I'm glad it's over," she said. "We want to live a quiet life without all of those insulting remarks."

1/2 cup melted butter or other shortening
2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and sugar, and stir again. Combine egg yolks and milk; add to flour mixture, mixing only until smooth. Combine shortening and chocolate; add to batter and blend. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites until they will hold up in moist peaks. Stir quickly but thoroughly into batter. Bake in hot waffle iron. Sharply Cut Foreign Aid Bill Passes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today passed a $3,186,500,000 foreign aid bill cutting deeply under President Eisenhower's request and tailored to force out information the administration wants to withhold.

The bill went to the Senate on a 279-136 roll call vote. Only that formal action had been left over Tuesday night after the House finished section-by-section consideration and tentatively approved the product.

Both the cut in funds and the force-out provision are sore points with Eisenhower.

Just before the House acted the President predicted at his news conference that the force-out plan never would get to his desk as legislation. He described it as an unconstitutional invasion of executive powers. The device consists of a section providing for a cut-off of aid funds if the administration holds back from Congress its evaluation reports on how aid programs are going.

At the same news conference Eisenhower said the bill's reduction of 700 million dollars from his request would damage the program seriously.

Eisenhower said in response to news conference questions that if the House cuts this amount from mutual security funds he is very hopeful the Senate will restore it. Actually, House Democrats figure they have cut 1 billion in need of 700 million. They count in 500 million which Eisenhower that have been coming our way."

Laster will continue in office another five months. Sullivan's nomination is tantamount to election as traffic judge.

Three Sentenced in Narcotics Case

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Three of five persons arrested here last Thursday in a motel raid have pleaded guilty to charges of possessing narcotics.

Miller Circuit Judge Lyle Brown sentenced "Sam" Shores, 37, of Odessa, Tex., and Carl F. Barber, 45, of Longview, Tex., to three-year prison terms. He gave Margaret Ann Cyder, 27, of Oklahoma City a three-year suspended term.

Two others arrested in the raid, during which $2,600 worth of narcotics was recovered, were William O. Jones, 35, of El Paso, Tex., and Shores' wife, Nell, 37. Jones pleaded innocent to the narcotics possession charge and was jailed in lieu of $3,500 bond. Mrs. Shores was not charged but was held for investigation.

"OUR BANG" COMEDY

LONDON (UPI) — The Sunday Express commented by cartoon Sunday on the public politicking of Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. The cartoon showed the two men standing on a bomb shaped to represent the earth, each holding a fuse and a lighted match. The caption: "Ha! I can blow me all to bits with a bigger bang than you can blow us all to bits with."

Ike Proposal Struck From Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee struck from a pending civil rights bill today President Eisenhower's proposal for a commission to enforce nondiscrimination in employment on government contracts.

The vote, taken behind closed doors, was reported to have been 16-12, not divided along party lines. Committee sources, asking not to be quoted by name, said that not only Southern opposition, but fears that the provision might bring on conflicts with labor unions, figured in the discussions. The committee, working to draft a bill for House consideration, approved continuation for two years from this fall of the Civil Rights Commission. This body, under present law, has busied itself mainly with complaints of violation of voting rights.

The insurrection of the Kurds who wanted to separate from Syria in 1937 was put down largely by the Syrian Air Force.

presence, the bartender straightened, turned and stared.

"Some cigars," Haskell said. He selected a couple of these, trimmed one and set it alight while considering the atmosphere of the place with a mounting distaste. The bartender had spoken no word to him, just stared with a glance that was stolid and blank and unyielding. Now, after fanning some change on the bar, he turned his back to fust at some inconsequential chore. In this lay the final gesture of a surly indifference that set an edge of anger loose in Haskell.

"What kind of a place is this? Do you treat everybody like they had the plague? Just how old were you, anyhow—when your disposition soured?"

The bartender flushed, snarling around. He was a paunchy one, with a heavy, veined face.

"You don't like it here, you don't have to stay. And my disposition suits me."

"Then," Haskell told him, bluntly sarcastic, "you're easy satisfied."

He dipped his head toward the ragged, thin unfortunate at the far end of the bar.

"Pour him a double shot and take it out of that change. Which should also entitle him to more food. Right?"

The bartender shrugged and reached for the bottle.

"It's your money."

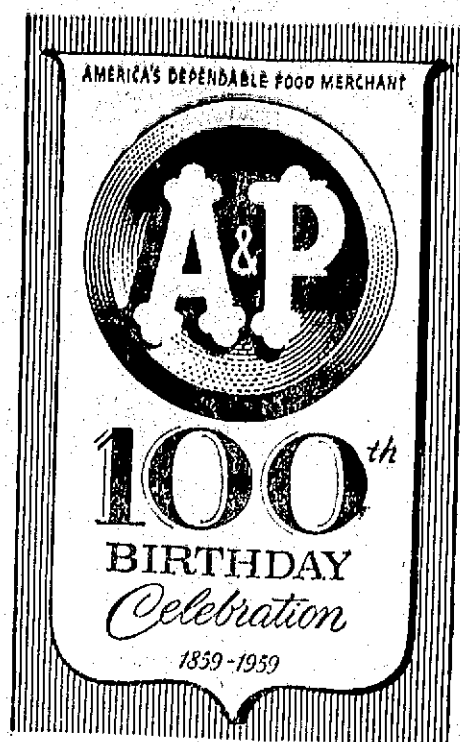

Out in the street again, Haskell went along until the duty timbers of the bridge were under foot, pausing for breath after its headlong, rushing descent from the canyon's heights, the river drifted more slowly. Leaning on the bridge rail, Haskell watched the stars.

Out of the black line of timber came the running mutter of approaching hoofs. The riders made a massed, hoof-trampling stop in front of the Canyon House.

Behind them, hanging in the heavy air, they left the acid scent of stirred-up dust and the broader, more pungent odor of sweat-soaked horseflesh.

Watching, Grady saw one man move away from the others to the hotel porch. In clear outline against the light beyond, Haskell recognized the arrogant set of the head of Vince Tendler. And past Tendler's outline a slim figure moved into view, Katherine Lev ening.

Summer Party Pie

The busy hostess will have a whirl and so will her guests with this Swirled Lemon Chiffon Pie—easy to make and perfect for summer entertaining. Yes! You guessed it. It is prepared with the lemon chiffon pie filling mix and fruit preserves. Here apricot preserves are swirled through the filling. Pineapple preserves would be equally good—very refreshing in a crisp Toasties Crust.

Swirled Lemon Chiffon Pie

1 package lemon chiffon pie filling mix 1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup boiling water 1/2 cup apricot preserves
1/2 cup cold water 1 9-inch Toasties Crust, baked.

Place pie filling mix in a large deep mixing bowl. Add boiling water and mix thoroughly. Add cold water; then beat vigorously with an egg beater, or at highest speed of electric mixer, until mixture is very foamy—about 1 minute. Add sugar and beat until filling stands in peaks—1 to 2 minutes. Spoon into Toasties Crust. Place preserves over top and swirl into pie filling with a spatula. Chill until set—about 2 hours.

Toasties Crust: Combine 1 cup finely crushed corn flakes and 3 tablespoons sugar. Add 1/3 cup melted butter or margarine and mix well. Press firmly on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie pan. Bake pie crust in moderate oven (375° F.) 5 to 8 minutes and cool before filling.

Negotiations End in El Dorado Strike

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Union and management yesterday broke off negotiations in a month-old strike at the American Oil Co., refinery here.

The end to negotiations was announced after company and union officials met for a third time with federal Mediator, C. A. Wheeler. Possibility of further meetings was left to Wheeler's discretion. The Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers union struck the refinery July 1 in a dispute over working conditions.

Low Hemline Planned by Paris' Castillo

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (AP)—Lanvin Castillo, the fashion designer, will buck the trend and show the lowest hemlines of the season when he lets the press see his new line Thursday.

The collection includes shorter hems, but the hemline is particularly long on coats. A slight drop to just below the knee or top-of-the calf has been the median in showings so far.

Unless Dior drops them sharply, too, which has not been indicated, designer Castillo may be edgier," she added.

What happens when a lone rebel bucks the trend? If he can really bring it off he starts a revolution. But few can do it. What probably will happen in this case, is that the buyers will take what LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus' charges that "shocking conditions" exist in nursing homes will be heard Friday by the Pulaski County Jury. Foreman Paul A. Dulin said yesterday.

The governor made the charges in a July 16 press conference. He specifically attacked Trinity, Inc., a Little Rock home. Trinity operators asked the Grand Jury investigation and later blocked Faubus by a court suit from removing welfare patients from the home.
